

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1888.

FLOORED BY THE UMPIRE.

THE GIANTS LOSE AT PHILADELPHIA.

BUT THIS TIME, IT SEEMS, THEY WERE NOT TO BLAME.

Five foot-pads attacked Fritz Meyer, of Waverly, T. N., at midnight Wednesday, while he was walking along the sewer wall in Battery Park. They stole a silver watch, a gold chain and $22 from him, and then threw him into the water. He cried loudly for help to Policeman Tate, who rescued him. He was thoroughly chilled through and was sent to the Chambers Street Hospital. One of the thieves was recognized as Patrick Hanrahan. Detectives are looking for the gang.

CALLING THE POLICE BOARD TOGETHER.

President French, of the Police Board, returned yesterday from his Western trip and called the Board together for the first time in two months. The other commissioners were there to greet him. There was but little business to transact, however, the most important being the retiring of a number of the old men who had reached the limit.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

New York, Aug. 22.—BEVEVES—Receipts were 33 cars of 100 head to-day, 200 head to-day, 200 head to-morrow. Cattle, partly for export, were for the market. No riding at the cattle yards. Feeding wear for all grades except the best. The market was very quiet, however, the most important being the selling of a number of the old men who had reached the limit.
